

NOTICE: STG Houston Closure Today

Dear Business Partner,

As we have informed previously, our STG Houston office will remain closed today, Friday, September 8th, 2023. The closure is due to a request from U.S. Customs. There will be no warehouse activity until Monday, September 11th, 2023. Please advise your clients of potential delays on both import and export shipments. Free time will be extended accordingly for all import cargo. While the facility is closed, we will have a reduced staff working remotely to provide customer service and respond to email accordingly.
